september 2014 WHAT A SUMMER!

The Higher Things Conference taught me many different things in the span of a week: how many real Lutherans are out there and how impacting a real traditional service can be. It took a few days to get used to so... [see Kelly on reverse side]

One break out session in particular focused on missions. The entire 60 minute period had the same overarching theme: mission trips are not about oneself, but rather the glory of God. God has called us to proclaim His Word... [see Savanna]

Mt. Cross Special Friends Camp is an experience of a lifetime! In my opinion, this camp is where you can see God's grace & love shine the brightest. The special friends campers see only the best in life - and in others... [see Jessica]
